

COMING SOON: ARTAPESTRY 3 CALL FOR ENTRIES

European Tapestry Forum (ETF) will soon be seeking entries for ARTAPESTRY 3, its third European Tapestry Triennial.

Submission deadline: 31st March 2011.

The exhibition will open in early 2012 and will be shown in at least three venues in Europe.

ETF was set up by tapestry artists for tapestry artists. It seeks to encourage the continuing development of the art of tapestry weaving. ETF is negotiating with major museums around Europe.

GUIDELINES FOR ARTISTS

ARTAPESTRY 3 is open to professional tapestry artists living/working in Europe.

- Artists may submit digital images of up to three works for consideration by the jury.
- Works must have been made in the previous three years.
- Minimum size: Woven area of 1 square meter.
- Technique: tapestry weaving; covered warp, discontinuous weft.
- Artists must commit their work for a maximum of two years as the exhibition will tour to at least three European venues.
- Entry fee: €30

SELECTION

The selection for the exhibition will take by a jury of experts in Copenhagen during April 2011.
